

DIESEL MECHANIC

Melbourne International Truck Centre, Dandenong, is part of the AP Eagers Group, a public listed company which has 95 car and truck dealerships throughout Australia. Due to our ever expanding business we are seeking enthusiastic, self motivated and goal orientated people with excellent written and verbal skills to join our service team.

Previous experience within the heavy transport industry is highly desirable but not essential and applicants from the automotive or machinery industries are encouraged to apply. A heavy vehicle licence would also be an advantage

Melbourne International Trucks offer training and career advancement opportunities plus an industry leading salary including tool and shift allowances.

Please send applications to; careers@melbourneinternational.com.au

AP Eagers/Adtrans is an equal opportunity employer.
